

Dr. Deneia Thomas, Assistant Professor in Counseling and Educational Psychology. She comes to ECU with a vast array of experiences within k-12, the State Department of Education and Higher Education with an excellent base as an educator, researcher and administrator in educational psychology. Thomas' research interests surround the examination of factors that promote success among diverse student populations.